Foreign Intelligence.

PETERSBUGH November 15.

AN Extraordinary Supplement to our Court Gazette contains Official accounts from Prince Italiskoi, Count Suwarrow, concerning the operations of his Army after it had quitted Italy, and its penetrating through Switzerland to Feldkirch, of which the following is an abstract:

"Feldkirch, October 3, Old Style.

"When we separated from the Austrians on the 31st of August, near Tortona, I demanded of the Austrian General of Cavalry, Melas, a sufficient quantity of mules; but he only supplied me with a sufficient quantity for our heavy artillery, and refused to let me have more, assuring me that at Bellinzona, which leads to Mount St. Gothard, I should find every thing requisite for the march of the Army. Thus we were obliged to have our necessary baggage conveyed to the Laco di Como. After as rapid a march as the mountains would permit us, we arrived at Taverna, ten werstes from Bellinzona, and found not a single mule. The Austrian General Teller and his Commissaries deceived us by their shameful equivocal promises, and we lost the fifth day at Tavenna, without being able to do any thing. This state of inactivity gave the enemy time to collect his forces, and to take the necessary steps to endanger our situation.

"In this helpless state we had no other refuge than to employ the horses of the Cossacks instead of mules, as advised by His Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Constantine Powlowich. At length, 400 mules with their drivers, arrived, who were, however, only hired as far as Bellinzona; on learning which, we entered into a fresh agreement with them, to ensure their assistance as long as we might have occasion for it.

"Our Army left the Frontiers of Italy regretted by all the Inhabitants, (but with the glory of having liberated that Country,) and traversed a chain of dreadful Mountains —Here Mount St. Gothard, the Colossus among Mountains, surrounded by clouds impregnated with thunder, presents itself to our view; there, the Vogel Mountain, striving as it where to eclipse the former in terrific grandeur! All [illegible], all obstacles are surmounted; and amidst the combat of elements, the enemy cannot stand against the brave Army which suddenly appears on this new theatre; every where they are driven back. Your Imperial Majesty's troops penetrated the dark mountain-cavern of Urseren, and made themselves masters of the bridge, which is formed by two mountains, and justly bears the name of Devil's Bridge; though the enemy had destroyed it, yet it could not stop the progress of the victorious troops; boards were tied together with the Officers' scarfs, and along that bridge the troops threw themselves from the highest precipices into tremendous abysses, fell in with the enemy, and defeated them wherever it was possible to come up with them.

"It now remained for our troops to climb Mount Winter, the summit of which is covered with everlasting snow, and whose naked rocks surpass every other in steepness. Alm it buried in mud, they were obliged to ascend through cataracts rolling down with dreadful impetuosity, hurling with irresistable force huge fragments of rocks and masses of snow and clay, by which numbers of men and horses were impelled down the gaping caverns, were some found their graves, and others were saved with the greatest difficulty. It is beyond the powers of language to paint this awful spectacle of nature with all its horrors.

(Here follow circumstantial details of the different actions in Switzerland, already known to the public; among other things, the report says "Gen. Massena, who was defeated on the birth day of his Imperial Majesty, saved himself by flight. Prince Gortschakow was wounded in the head by a bullet, and Prince Bagration received a grape shot wound. The Grand Duke Constantine greatly distinguished himself; he animated the army by his example, and gave useful and salutary councils.")

"Taverne, October 9, 1799.

"Lord Mulgrave had repeatedly assured me, that the English Ministry never thought of bringing the troops of your Imperial Majesty into Switzerland until the Archduke Charles had completely cleared the country of the enemy. He also told me, that Baron Thugut had given the most solemn assurances to the British Minister at Vienna, that the Archduke should on no account quit Switzerland. Yet he deceived him with those assurances, and meanwhile procured the Archduke time to leave Switzerland."

NEW TITLE FOR SUWARROW.

The following is the Ukase by which Prince Suwarrow has been appointed Generalissimo of all the troops:

"To the Generalissimo of all the Imperial Russian troops, Prince Alexander Wasiljewitsch, Italiskoi, Count Suwarrow.

"October 29, 1799.

"Every where the enemies of your country have been vanquished by you; only one degree of glory was left for you to acquire—to conquer Nature herself; and now she also submits to your prowess. By your last victory over the enemy of religion, you have likewise crushed the artifices of his allies, whom malice and envy had armed against you. I now bestow on you the only reward that remains for me to prove any gratitude; and in promoting you to the highest rank which is reserved for honor and bravery, I bestow it on the first General of the present and of past ages."

Neapolitan and Russian Treaties.

The following are some of the articles of a Treaty of Alliance, between the King of the Two Sicilies and his Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias:

Art. 2. His Majesty, the Emperor of all the Russias, in order to prove his desire of being effectively, and as much as possible an useful ally to his Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies, independently of the assistance which his fleet, joined to that of the Porte in the Mediterranean affords, by contributing to the safety of the coast of Sicily, will furnish his Majesty the King of the two Sicilies, for the present war against the French, a supply of troops by land, consisting of nine battalions of Infantry, with the necessary Artillery, and two hundred Cossacks. This corps shall set out on its march as soon as the weather and the roads will allow. It shall march by part of the Turkish States to Zara, in Daimatia, where his Sicilian Majesty shall have ready, at the time of the arrival of the said corps, both vessels ready for transporting them to Italy, and provisions necessary for subsisting them.

Art. 3. The two high contracting parties shall previously employ their care with his Majesty the Emperor, and the Ottoman Porte, in order that the Russian auxiliaries may have a free passage both in their approaching march and when they shall return to Russia.

Art. 4. The Auxiliary Russian troops shall be provided with warlike ammunition by his Majesty the Emperor of all the Russians: He also takes upon himself the pay of these troops, and the recruiting of them during the time they shall be employed in the service of his Majesty the king of the two Sicilies. With respect to provisions and forage, these articles shall be furnished by his Sicilan Majesty, as the party requiring, on the same footing as the same Troops receive it by order of the ordinance of their own sovereign. Quarters shall be provided for them, and all the advantages shall be procured for them which the troops of the court requiring their assistance enjoy or may enjoy while in campaign or in quarters.

Art. 5. In order to avoid all misunderstanding between the two High Contracting parties, they have agreed and stipulated—first, that notwithstanding the Court requiring assistance is obliged to provide for the subsistance of the Auxiliary Troops, from the moment that they march off the Russian frontiers, and also after their passage on the right bank of the Duiester, his majesty the Emperor of Russia, for the greater convenience, will himself provide for the subsistence of the said troops till their arrival at Zara in Dalmatia, on this condition, that the king of the two Sicilies will remit to Petersburg in the course of the next year, or, if more suitable to him, to the general commanding the auxiliaries, the sum of 100,000 roubles, in which sum is comprised the full amount of all expences, viz provisions, forage and subsistence money. Secondly, that the said troops shall receive from the moment of their arrival at Zara and even to their return to that city, on account of the king of the two Sicilies, thro the means of his commissaries, and conformably to what is stipulated in the fourth article of the present treaty, provisions and Forage necessary for their maintenance. For their return into Russia provision will be made after the manner stipulated in the first part of this article. But should the Russian troops on their return home take another route, the two courts shall previously concert means on the above expressed premises. Thirdly, That in addition to the provision and forage, the Russian troops shall receive from his majesty of the two Sicilies, during their continuance in his service, five Russian pence per day for subsistence money.

Wilmington, (Del.) Jan. 27. 1awts.

A valuable Estate for sale,
IN VIRGINIA.

THE NORWICH LANDS, MILLS, AND APPENDAGES.

THIS ESTATE

IS situated in the county of Henrico, on Four Mile Creek, near its junction with James River, about 12 miles from the city of Richmond, and nearly the same distance from Petersburg.

There is about 150 acres of land, and the whole of it good soil for agriculture, and a full proportion of it very suitable for grass; about one half of it is cleared and in a state fit for immediate cultivation; the rest is in woods and well covered with useful timber of different kinds. As to the improvements on the farm, there is a decent dwelling house with the usual out houses, a good brick spring house, and a large new excellent barn, one story of brick, and the other framed work, two orchards of apples and of peaches, in full perfection and good fruit.

The mills consist of three pair of bur stones for the grinding of wheat, and one pair of stones for grinding of corn, all of proved good quality, worked by overshot water wheels and double gears, with all the late improvements for screening, cleaning, bolting and elivating the wheat and flour, all executed in the best manner and of the best materials and quite new —The mill house is large and convenient, being 46 feet by 72 feet with five floors, the two lower stories are brick, the rest framed work executed in the most substantial manner; the house and machinery of the mills will be found unexceptionable, and they are so situated as to be free from all risque from the freshes or inundation of the water courses—There is a very convenient brick bake house two stories high, with two large ovens; a very good house for the proprietor or manager, a store room, counting room, kitchen, &c, also suitable houses for millers, coopers, and bakers—The tide water from James River flows to the walls of the mill, where boats of three to four hundred bushels burthen can receive their loads out of the mill, and in one miles distance, ships of any size that navigate James River, can load in great safety.

The neighborhood is healthy—very respectable as to inhabitants, being mostly independent farmers, and the soil is in general very justly esteemed equal to any on James River, for the growing of wheat; upon a moderate calculation, the average annual crops of the neighborhood equally convenient if not more so, to the Norwich Mills, than to any other market, amount to between thirty and forty thousand bushels of wheat. Mr. John P. Gordon who lives on the premises at present, will shew the whole to those who may incline to view it.

I would prefer a purchaser who could pay down the principal part of the purchase money, and would give a very advantageous bargain—or I will sell on a credit convenient to the purchaser, the interest being paid annually. I will wait for a purchaser till the 15th day of March next, and if not then sold, I will be glad to treat with a tenant for a lease, on terms which may be mutually agreeable. I have offered the whole of this estate for sale, on a presumption that the purchaser of the mills would incline to have the land also, for a supply of building timber, oven wood and hoop poles; but if it be more agreeable to him to take the mills and a few acres of land, he shall be accommodated accordingly.

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE seen your advertisement "To the Public" whereby you offer your services to locate United States Military Land Warrants, and in which you assert that you "possess superior information to any others" and that you can locate warrants "the most advantageously."—As I believe you have not explored more of the Military District than some other persons who also offer their services to locate warrants—permit me to suggest the propriety of altering your advertisement, so as to do justice to those whose knowledge of the Military Land, is, at least equal to that which you possess. I do not assert that all who advertise as locaters are superior, or even equal to you, in the knowledge of it. I see advertisements by persons who have never explored a single range, and by others who have been over but a small part of the Military Land—to these your advertisement would apply; but as you class all other locaters as inferior to yourselves. I have taken the liberty of giving you the above advice, which if attended to with candour will, for the present satisfy.

A LOCATER.

PHILADELPHIA,
MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 10.

From late Landon Papers.

Among ſome ladies who came over in the laſt paſſage veſſel from France, was one dreſſed in a green habit, with yellow cuffs and collar, reſembling a military uniform, who called herſelf Miſs Wade, but who proves to be the wife of Blackwell, Napper Tandy's aſſociate. She is a handſome young Engliſh woman, and at firſt was detained, but ſhe is ſince releaſed and is arrived at London. Her huſband was in the French ſervice before the revolution, and ſhe has the act of naturalization ſigned by Louis XVI.—She came from Paris and brought with her orders to raiſe the embargo laid on at Cadias—She has ſome ſiſters married in the country; through the Secretary of State's office, ſhe was allowed to correſpond with her huſband.

In the preſent age of political innovation, it is curious to obſerve the great veneration for antiquity which prevails in all our dreſſes and faſhions. Queen Elizabeth's ruff decorates our blooming belles: and our beaux are puckered and ſtuffed on the ſhoulders A LA RICHARD THE THIRD. But what is ſtill more remarkable, is the total abjuration of the female pockets.—Theſe heavy appendages are no more worn at preſent than keys at the girdle. Every faſhionable fair carries her purſe in her work bag.—Her money and her induſtry lie cheek by jowl—and her gambling gains lie ſnug by her houſe-wife. Her handkerchief, her tooth-pick caſe, her watch, and her keys, if ſhe has any, are the conſtant concomitants of her viſits; and while no part of the ſymmetry of her ſhape is altered or concealed by the old faſhioned pannier, ſhe has the pleaſure of laying every thing that belongs to her upon the table wherever ſhe goes.

The dowry of the Princeſs of Ruſſia, bride to the Archduke Joſeph, Palatinate of Hungary, required 68 waggons to tranſport it. It arrived at Lomberg on the 2d inſt. The whole is valued at ten million rubles and the freight to Peſt alone coſt twelve thouſand rubles.

Dr. James Anderſon ſtates, that a linen cloth thrown over apples, moſt effectually preſerves them from the froſt.

A young ruſtic a few days ago, having conducted his virgin bride to church, at a village near Farnby, in Lancaſhire, and patiently ſubmitted to the awful ceremony, returned with her home to her mother's houſe, from which he immediately abſconded, and has not ſince been heard of.

The following paſſage taken from General Berthier's account of the operations of the army of Egypt, expoſes the credulity and ſuperſtition of the people of that country:

"In the beginning of Floreal, an emiſſary from Africa, who had landed at Derne, acting the Saint, and being ſurrounded by diſciples, joined himſelf to the Arabs, calling himſelf the Angel El Mahdi, announced in the Alcoran. He declared that the muſquets, bayonets, ſabres, and cannon of the French could not hurt true believers, who might march along with him: on the contrary, that on the ſight of their arms the French would retire without being able to defend themſelves. His aſſertions were believed, and when he thought that he had a ſufficient force he marched againſt Demenhurel with the Arabs (theſe Arabs had made a treaty of peace ſome days before, with General Marmont, at Alexandria.) He ſurpriſed theſe, and butchered ſixty men of the nautical legion, who had remained in the town, notwithſtanding the orders their commandant had received to repair to the fort of Rhamanie. The Angel El Mahdi taking advantage of this ſucceſs, raiſed the whole province. Lefebvre ſet out from the fort of Rhamanie with 200 men: but the Arabs and Feliahs were all under arms. He was ſurrounded and fought till night, when he retired into the fort, having killed all thoſe who came within reach of his ſire. This Saint El Mahdi loſt his credit by the death of many of his diſciples, but the Province ſtill remained in a ſtate of inſurrection. General Lanuſſe, with a moveable column, advanced on the 19th to Rhamanie, and from thence to Demenhurel, driving every thing before him. He put to the ſword 1,500 men in that town, and reduced it to aſhes. He diſperſed the diſciples of the Saint El Mahdi, who himſelf fled, wounded, and half dead, with fear. The Maugrabins paſſed the Nile, and gained Tharkie. The Province was reſtored to good order."

A letter from Brunſwick, in the Redacteur, ſays, "Perhaps you do not know that M. de Berlepſch, Provincial Counſellor in Hanover, having been depoſed by the King of England as elector of Hanover, appealed to the tribunal of the empire. He gained his cauſe, and the elector of Hanover (king of England) was ſentenced to reinſtate him, under pain of execution on the part of the empire.

Sieyes was extremely rejoiced at the return of Buonaparte. It was he who announced it to Baudin, ſince dead. I have to inform you, ſays the director, of the beſt piece of news in the world; but you ſhall gueſs firſt what it is: Perhaps, ſaid Baudin, it is a victory of Championet. Better than that. A new victory of Maſſena? Suwarrow taken? Better yet. The Engliſh driven from Holland? Still better. Is it then, replied Baudin, the ſigning of the preliminaries of peace? No, you are not yet right, anſwered Sieyes; but it is an event which may lead to a peace; it is the arrival of Buonaparte in France.

To JOHN ADAMS, PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

SIR,

THE general aſſembly of the territory north-weſt of the river Ohio, believing that the higheſt reward which a virtuous public officer can receive, is the applauſe of his fellow citizens, are anxious to embrace the earlieſt opportunity of declaring their confidence in your virtue and talents, and their approbation of your official conduct. With a degree of pleaſure and exultation more eaſily felt than expreſſed, we review the hiſtory of your important life, replete with proofs of patriotic virtue. At a period which demanded more than common firmneſs, we ſaw, you ſtep forward the reſolute ſupporter of your country's rights.—We witneſſed your perſeverance through the revolutionary war, and to your firmneſs we attribute the enjoyment of the rich country we now inhabit. Having acted ſo conſpicuous a part in the eſtabliſhment of American independence, at the cloſe of the arduous conteſt which enrolled the United States on the record of nations, you might have retired to the ſhade of private life, and ſecurely enjoyed the approbation of an upright mind, and the applauſe of a grateful country. But, happily for America, you choſe to continue in pulic life, till the confidence of your fellow citizens, at a critical moment, placed you at the helm of ſtate; and permit us, ſir, to aſſure you, that we are duly impreſſed with a ſenſe of the wiſdom, juſtice and firmneſs with which you have diſcharged this important truſt; and we take this early opportunity of aſſuring you, ſir, of our ſincere attachment to the American conſtitution and government, and of our determination to afford every poſſible ſupport to both.

We believe that, regardleſs of the voice of party ſpirit, which has given to diſtract our national councils, you have kept the honor and happineſs of the nation conſtantly in view; and we ardently pray that the wiſe ruler of nations may preſerve your health and life.

Extract of a letter from a reſpectable gentleman in Georgetown, Maryland.

"The particular teſtimonies of General Waſhington's remembrance to individuals conſiſt of four legacies only. One of theſe is a pair of curiouſly mounted piſtols to M. de la Fayette, who took them, when commanding a ſmall detachment during the revolutionary war, and preſerved them to the General. His books and pens to Judge Waſhington—a moſt valuable gift; and to Dr. Craik, a whimſically ſhaped mechanical writing deſk. I muſt not omit here a circumſtance, which places in eminent point of view the beautiful propriety of his characteriſtical prudence, by which he often diſentangled himſelf from ſituations truly embarraſſing. Some years ſince, the preſent earl of Buchan ſent to the General a curious oaken box, made out of the tree which concealed Sir James Wallace, with this requeſt ſubjoined, "that he would aſſign death leave it to the man he thought moſt worthy." The General with great wiſdom has deſired the box to be returned to his lordſhip with this anſwer, "that it is not for General Waſhington to point out the worthieſt citizen of the United States." One ſtriking ſingularity of his will is an elaborate collection of arguments annexed to every item, wherein he demonſtrates the propriety of the management and diſpoſal of his effects and wealth, which, is eſtimated a million of dollars."

SAVANNAH, January.

The following communication has been tranſmitted to us from a correſpondent at St. Mary's.

January 1ſt, 1800

This day an expreſs arrived at Point Petre, with diſpatches from col. Hawkins, the Indian agent, to Mr. Ellicott the United States commiſſioner for running the boundary line. Among the diſpatches received, there is a proclamation ſigned by William Auguſtus Bowles, ſtiling himſelf chief and director general of the Creek Nation, which has been ſtuck up and made public through the Creek Towns. This promation exceeds in inſolence, impudence and bombaſt, any thing that hath hitherto been exhibited by this well known adventurer. Bowles in the moſt direct terms denies the right of either the United States or Spain to run the boundary line, or to have any intercourſe with the Indians, but by his authority. He forbids this, on pain of death, to all who may oppoſe his royal will and pleaſure. Bowles orders the Indians to ſend Mr. Hawkins and others out of the nation. Certain it is, one or other of them ought not to be there; and the people of this country will ſoon ſee which of theſe men have moſt influence among the Indians, as Mr. Hawkins muſt quit the ground, or drive Bowles, after ſuch proclamation and threats againſt him and his country.

It appears that moſt of the Sawanolia Indians, and thoſe on the lower parts of the Chatahoochie and Flint rivers, have joined Bowles. The diſpatches which Mr. Ellicott, ſent from St. Marks to the governors of Penſacola and Mobile, were taken by the adventurer's Indian ſcouts, and brought to him; with theſe diſpatches were duplicates of Mr. Ellicott's letters to the ſecretary of the United States.

P. S. The runners who brought the diſpatches ſay, that Bowles has a veſſel arrived with goods from England, for the Indians; this, however, wants confirmation.

Head quarters, Wickwa, Oct. 31, '99.

Whereas divers perſons have been employed by the United States, and his Catholic Majeſty, ſanctioned by commiſſion, to diſſeminate diſcord to make parties, and by every unlawful means to deceive our people, in order to effect the completion of a treaty between the United States and his Catholic Majeſty at Philadelphia, in the month of September, 1795, with intentions to ſubvert and deſtroy the right of ſovereignty which this nation and its confederates have had from the beginning of time.

We, the Director-General of Muſkogee, being duly authoriſed, do hereby iſſue our proclamation, and direct that all perſons now reſiding within the territories of Muſkogee, holding any unlawful commiſſion under the United States or his Catholic Majeſty, or employed by them, are hereby ordered to depart theſe our territories, on or before the 8th November next, as they will anſwer at their peril.

We do hereby alſo direct, that after the ſaid 8th day of November next, if any perſon or perſons are found holding ſaid commiſſions, or acting contrary to good order, he or they ſhall be arreſted as conſpirators, and proceeded againſt according to the law of nations eſtabliſhed in ſuch caſes.

Given under our hand, at Wickwa, this 31ſt day of October, 1799.
God ſave the ſtate of Muſkogee.

Wm. A. BOWLES.
Director-General of Muſkogee.

Ochookwheethia, 30th Nov. 1799.

Friend,

I HAVE now diſpatched all the talk to England, to Providence and to Jamaica by my boat. I hourly expect the arrival of a veſſel, which I ſhall, as ſoon as ſhe has diſcharged her load, ſend off with other copies or duplicates of them, in order that all may be ſure.

I incloſe you a copy of the proclamation reſpecting the Americans who have been employed in this country ſince I have been away, in order to deceive and deſtroy this Nation. I hope they are all gone, for it is not my wiſh to injure them; it is abſolutely neceſſary that they ſhould depart and that immediately, or they will forfeit the protection due to all men, and by the law of nations ought to ſuffer death by being hanged as conſpirators againſt the peace, and ſovereignty of Muſkogee.

There are ſome good men who have been employed by them; they were ignorant and did not know the conſequence of their employ. James Derezens at the Cowettas although he has had a commiſſion from the Spaniards he has not done much harm becauſe I ſtopped it. Mr. Hawkins is the man who if he is not gone muſt go immediately, as he is a dangerous man and will cauſe ſome miſchief to you by ſtaying. I ſhall ſeize him if I find him, for not obeying the proclamation, and proceed againſt him according to law.

I requeſt you to make known this talk to all your towns. As my papers are not come down as yet, you had better keep them until you come yourſelf, or until I ſee you at your houſe, for as ſoon as I have diſpatched my buſineſs here I will pay a viſit to the towns, which I expect will not be long. The people whom I left behind me when I came to meet you at the Wekiwa, having a great deal of rum behaved very ill, they deſtroyed almoſt every thing I left with them, or let the water ſpoil it which is the ſame thing, which I feel more for the ſake of our beloved red people, than for myſelf, but it will not be long before all will be ſtraight.

I am your ſincere friend,
WILLIAM A. BOWLES.

Let me hear from you and the news you have in your town.

Port of Philadelphia.

Sch. Andrew, M'Gregor, from hence, has arrived at Cape Francois.

Arrived at Reedy Iſland, ſhip Eclipſe, Rieley. Sailed from St. Sebaſtians the 24th Nov. laſt; left there the brig Trial, Talbot, of this port, for St. Thomas, to ſail in a few days. Capt. R. alſo informs that the ſhip Woodrop Sims, Hodgſon, of and for this port, from London, taken ſome time ſince by a French privateer, had arrived at Rochefort, the crew were ſent to Bayonne and captain to St. Sebaſtian's; that after a paſſage of 28 days, capt. R. arrived at St. Thomas. Left at St. Thomas the brig Jack, Doiby, of this port, to ſail in a few days for the Havanna: alſo the United States brig Auguſta, M'Elroy, from cape Francois where he had ſeen the convoy ſafe which went from Philadelphia under his protection. Capt M. intended to leave St. Thomas in a few days for his ſtation off Porto Rico. From information gained at St. Thomas, capt. R. learnt that the ſhip Manchester, Coxe, of and for this port, from St. Sebaſtians, had put into Antigua in diſtreſs.

Capt. R. left St. Thomas, and 19 days made the Capes of Delaware—A few days previous to getting in, he experienced a very heavy gale of wind, off Cape Henry, from N. E. which obliged him to throw ſome of his guns overboard.

Schr. Little Will, Cuſhing, from Havanna, has got ſafe into the piers of Mud Fort.

Ship Neſtor, Waite, from Liverpool, has arrived at Reedy Iſland.

New-York, February 8.

ARRIVED

Sloop Minerva, Williams, Jamaica 26
Schooner Fanny, Skiddy, Havanna 16

Cleared, the Eliza, Fairchild, for the Havanna.

Thurſday evening arrived here from London, the ſhip Mary, capt. Moores. She ſailed from London the 24th of October, and from Spithead the 19th of November, in company with the Mediterranean, Liſbon Eaſt and Weſt India fleets, and parted from the Eaſt-India, South Sea and American convoys on the 29th of November, off Cape Finiſter—the ſhip Charles Carter, Bell, of Philadelphia, then in company, bound to Liſbon, with king's ſtores.

On the 19th of December, ſeparated from the Jamaica fleet off the Canaries, then in lat. 26, 41, under convoy of the Britiſh ſhip Sans Pariel, capt. Penroſe. The ſhip Juno, Baird, of Baltimore; the ſhip Commerce, Richards, of Charleſton; the ſhip Adriana, of Philadelphia; and the brig Palms, Collins, of Charleſton, then with the fleet.

The Mary, in lat. 21, 57, ſpoke the ſchr. Diligence, of Boſton, 55 days from Gibraltar to Boſton. Jan. 12, ſpoke the ſloop Margaret, Gray, of Boſton, 18 days from Norfolk to St Kitts. Jan. 27, in lat. 32, 65, was boarded by the ſhip Neſtor of Portland, from Liverpool to Philadelphia, but intended to put into New-York—out 90 days—received ſome ſupplies from the Neſtor.

Capt Moores ſpeaks very highly of capt. Penroſe's attention to the American veſſels.

The ſloop Minerva, Williams. On the 3d December, outward bound, was plundered by a French privateer of ſome ſtores; but otherwiſe treated politely. Said privateer, that day took the Mercury of Philadelphia, bound to Port Republican, and put the priſoners on board the Minerva. The brig was afterwards retaken by an Engliſh frigate and ſent into Kingſton.—Homeward bound, between Jamaica and Hiſpaniola, was again plundered of ſome ſtores by another privateer, ſhewing no colours. On the paſſage, ſaw ſeveral Engliſh ſhips of war.

The ſch. Fanny, Skiddy, ſailed from the Havanna on the 22d ult. in company with 15 ſail of American veſſels, under convoy of the United States brig Norfolk, capt. Bainbridge. Among a number of other American veſſels at the Havanna was the brig Little George of this port.

Arrived—Brig Polly, of Boſton, Lazarus Lovell, maſter, 32 days paſſage within the Capes from Damarara: Sailed from that the 19th December, left there the following Americans—Ship Thos. Chalkley, of Philadelphia to ſail in 10 days for Philadelphia; ſhip Mary, George Beathune, Boſton—Brig Mary, William Luds, of N. London, cargo diſcharged; ſchr. Americana, Iſaac Bell, of New York, to ſail in a few days for Trinidada; ſchr. Rebecca, Fiſher of Boſton; ſchooner Pearl, Griffin, Stonington; ſchooner Nancy, Little, Beverly; ſhip Eliza, Loring, of Boſton, up to clean; one or two other Americans names unknown.

On the 26th, about 70 miles miles to windward of Deſeada, early in the morning I fell in with the United States ſhip L'Inſurgent, Alexander Murray, Eſq. commander; by his requeſt I laid by until they cloſed ſeveral packages—the lieutenant who came on board informed me that there was alſo cruiſing to windward, the United States ſhip Connecticut, captain Tryon, the Adams, captain Morris, and the Invincible of 74 guns, the Baltimore and Pickering cruiſing under the lee of Guadaloupe. Likewiſe informed me that three weeks before had arrived at Guadaloupe, two French ſhips, one of 20 and one of 50 guns, which had brought out a new governor, Genet—captain Murray very politely told me he would ſtand on with me a piece to the northward, and accordingly did until 2 P. M. a lofty warlike ſhip with a crowd of ſail hove in ſight to windward, but on getting ſight of us ſhe in ſtudden ſails and hauled on a wind to the northward; the L'Inſurgent then made ſail and ſtood to windward after her: night came on, and I loſt ſight without knowing which had the better of the chaſe.

On the 28th, I fell in with the United States brig Pickering, Benjamin Hiller, eſq. commander, on a cruiſe—eight days before had captured the Volgieſe, of 10 guns and 61 men, 2 days from Guadaloupe, taken nothing; 3 months proviſions on board.—It was expected that this privateer would have engaged the Pickering, as ſhe ſhewed 14 ports; but on the Pickering firing a ſhot athwart her fore foot, and giving three cheers, the French colours came down. I had the above news from lieutenant Ingraham who came on board—he further ſaid, that four days before he was himſelf on ſhore at Point Petre, to exchange the above priſoners, and ſaw there the two French ſhips before mentioned.

The Pickering altering her cruiſe, has captured 16 ſail; ſhe was then full manned, and all her crew in good health: the Doctor, Mr. Sargeant, was ſo good as to come on board and preſcribe for a man I had ſick, who has ſince recovered.

JUST RECEIVED,
AND FOR SALE
By WILLIAM Y. BIRCH,
STATIONER,
No. 17 South Second Street,
THE FOLLOWING
VALUABLE MEDICINES.

Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

A long eulogium on the virtues of this medicine is unneceſſary, as the money will be returned if patient is not relieved—it never having failed in many thouſand caſes; not one in a hundred has had occaſion to take more than a bottle, and numbers not half a bottle.

Hahn's Anti-bilious Pills.

Dr. HAHN's
TRUE AND GENUINE
German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, ſpeedily removing them root nnd branch, without giving pain.

The Genuine Perſian Lotion.

So celebrated among the faſhionable throughout Europe, as an invaluable coſmetic, perfectly innocent and ſafe, free from corroſive and repellant minerals (the baſis of other lotions) and of unparaleiled efficacy in preventing and removing cutaneous blemiſhes of the face and ſkin of every kind, particularly, freckles, pimples, pits after ſmall pox, inflammatory redneſs, ſcurfs, tetters, ring worms, ſun burns, prickly heat, premature wrinkles, &c. The Perſian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding that natural, inſenſible perſpiration, which is eſſential to health—yet its effects are ſpeedy and permanent, rendering the ſkin delicately ſoft and ſmooth, improving the complexion and reſtoring the bloom of youth; never failing to render an ordinary countenance beautiful, and a handſome one more ſo.

Sovereign Ointment for the Itch,

Warranted an infallible and immediate cure, at once uſing; being the moſt ſpeedy, effectual and pleaſant remedy ever offered to the public, and for the ſatisfaction of the timorous, the proprietor maketh oath, that this ointment does not contain a ſingle particle of mercury or any other pernicious ingredient in its compoſition, and may be uſed with the moſt perfect ſafety by pregnant women and on infants newly born.

Patent Indian Vegetable Specific,
For the cure of Venereal complaints of every deſcription.

An extenſive trial of near four years has proved the vegetable ſpecific to be effectual in expelling the veneral virus, however deeply rooted in the conſtitution, and has reſtored health to many who have been brought to the verge of the grave by the improper adminiſtration of mercury. Within this period upwards of eight thouſand patients have experienced its ſalutary effects.

With the medicine is given a deſcription of the ſymptoms which obtain in every ſtage of the diſeaſe, with copious directions for their treatment, ſo as to accompliſh a perfect cure in the ſhorteſt time and with the leaſt inconvenience poſſible.

HAMILTON's
Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have, within nine months paſt, reliſved upwards of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND PERSONS of all ages in various complaints ariſing from worms and from foulneſs or obſtructions in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of ſimilar title ſo commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, ſufficient, not only to kill worms, but ſometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being ſuited to every age and conſtitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is ſo mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the moſt delicate pregnant lady, or the tendereſt infant of a week old, ſhould no worms exiſt in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offenſive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diſorders.

☞ At the place of ſale may be ſeen many remarkable caſes of cures, the authenticity of which any perſon may aſcertain, either by letter or perſonal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

Perſons wiſhing to procure any of the above medicines genuine, muſt apply ONLY as above—and likewiſe obſerve, that the ſignature of Lee & Co. (who are appointed the general agents for the United States) is paſted on the outſide of each, without which they cannot be genuine.

At the above place may be likewise had,
GOWLAND's LOTION.

CHURCH's COUGH DROPS.

ANDERSON's PILLS, &c. &c.

Wholeſale purchaſers allowed a liberal profit by application to Lee & Co. Market ſtreet, Baltimore; who will punctually execute all orders.

TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,
FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE
JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,
From the commencement
Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in ſize, paper, and binding, will be obſerved throughout the work; ſo that, while the ſubſcribers become poſſeſſed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to ſubſcribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound; but, as the publiſher does not intend to print more than the number ſubſcribed for, a conſiderable riſe on the price may be expected to non-ſubſcribers.

Each volume will contain about one third leſs of letter-preſs than the original edition; but, as the publiſher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot aſcertain the number of volumes which will comprife the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſsneſs, in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in theſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt inеſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhow the ſupport it has already acquired:

"Reſpectfully ſheweth,

"That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies, that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.
